I feel that I fit this role perfectly because not only am I highly organized, but I feel that my personality and work ethic would be one that is fitting for this role. I am a social butterfly and am extremely approachable. If there is ever an issue with anything at all, I will do everything in my power to make everyone happy. I would like to first make a bank account for the society. I would be in charge of opening that account and be responsible for all matters dealing with money. I plan to make a spread sheet of all of the events that we are doing and how much we plan on spending for each event. More specifically every aspect of that event. I would be in charge of all of the receipts and paying people back respectively when they have to buy things on their own. I will be making sure that our bank account is always where it needs to be and everyone has paid their respective amounts allotted.
